

3M Versaflo M-306 Headtop

Product Images

Description

The 3M Versaflo M-306 Headtops are designed to deliver respiratory protection and offer the wearer other protection and features to suit their environment and work. The M-306 Headtop features a general purpose faceseal for construction, chemical applications and heavy industry

- Lightweight, compact and well-balanced helmet
- Highly versatile
- Fully-adjustable suspension that includes textile straps for optimal fit and weight distribution
- Deflector directs airflow inside headtop
- Visor design combines excellent peripheral and downward vision with good optical clarity
- Coated polycarbonate visor provides added chemical and scratch resistance
- Conforms to EN 166, EN 397 and EN 12941 TH3
- Can be used with 3M Peltor Ear Muffs
- Suitable for applications such as metalworking, smelting, food and beverage manufacturing, chemical processing and more