

DDM Novastar MPP10 Manual Pick and Place Machine

Product Images

Description

SAFETY DIRECT

The MPP10 Manual Pick and Place Machines are designed specifically for low to medium volume assembly runs. Featuring a patented hand rest and arm assembly allowing operators to accurately and efficiently place SMT components

- Moveable, ESD-safe component bins slide in close to placement area
- Vacuum tip automatically toggles on and off during component pick-up and placement
- Handle boards up to 14" x 14" (356mm x 356mm)
- Wide variety of options available for both machines including programmable dispensers, tape feeders, etc. - please contact us for details