

Reliance Eurosplint

Product Images

Description

The Reliance Medical Eurosplint is a versatile product used to immobilise broken bones and sprain injuries

- Lightweight and washproof
- Compact and reusable
- Special metal macromolecule foam keeps splint clean and dry
- Can be shaped to suit different body parts including: neck, shoulders, arms, fingers, wrist, knee, legs and ankles
- Secured using tape or bandage
- Also available in a smaller finger splint

We stock a wide range of Reliance Medical first aid products and offer free delivery on all orders over €50