

Stahlwille Connector Pliers

Product Images

Description

The Stahlwille Connector Pliers are versatile pliers with four adjustable positions and replaceable plastic jaws. The Connector Pliers are made from strong chrome vanadium steel and are suitable for use on a variety of screw connections, including canon-connectors or any light alloy or tube connections

- Four adjustable positions
- Replaceable plastic jaws
- Length: 230mm
- Suitable for use on screw connections including canon-connectors or any light alloy or other tube connections
- Not suitable for use on damaged surfaces
- Material: chrome vanadium